

DAVE DARVEAU

Driver

Dave Darveau seemingly raced wherever there was one scheduled. In a driving career which spanned from 1954 to 1996, Dave competed at eighteen different racetracks from Florida to the Canadian Maritimes. His greatest success came here in his home state of Maine. Unity Raceway was home to many of Dave's victories and "at least" six track championships. Driving the familiar yellow and black "#8", he won on both the dirt racing surface and on asphalt – behind the wheel of 'cut down' coupes and Late Models. Dave won races at Beech Ridge Speedway, Spud Speedway, Speedway 95 and Arundel Speedway, an Open Comp '100' at Oxford Plains Speedway and two Late Model track championships at Wiscasset Speedway. Dave Darveau is also a member of the Wiscasset Speedway Hall of Fame as well as the New England Auto Racing Hall of Fame.
