

DICK WOLSTENHULME

Driver/Car Owner

Look up the word “Iron man” in the dictionary and a picture of Dick Wolstenhulme is probably present. For most of his 30-plus year driving career, Dick drove in two racing divisions at Beech Ridge Speedway – in the 1960’s, it was the Class ‘A’ and Class ‘B’ and in the 1970’s and 1980’s, it was the Modifieds and Late Models. It is estimated Dick has raced more than 35,000 miles at Beech Ridge. Dick won ten track championships, second on the all-time list at Beech Ridge. He twice won championships in two divisions in the same year – 1966 and 1974. His racing was not limited to Beech Ridge. Dick raced and won races at many Maine tracks, including Oxford Plains Speedway and Arundel Speedway, as well as in the Canadian Maritimes.
