

Al Hammond

Driver

Al Hammond's illustrious forty-five-year racing career began in 1964 at Oxford Plains Speedway. He has raced on the short tracks of Maine to the high banks of Daytona International Speedway. But Oxford Plains Speedway was "home" for Al as he won 81 of his career 91 victories. He captured three track championships (1970, 1972-73) and three Triple Crown Series titles (1967, 1970 and 1973). In 1991, Al was presented the 'Promoter's Cup' for his accomplishments in and contributions to the sport. Al had the opportunity to race at Daytona on three occasions for Dick Bahre – once in the Grand National division (NASCAR Cup Series) and twice in the Late Model division (NASCAR Nationwide Series). He also competed in a NASCAR Cup Series race at Trenton (N.J.) Speedway for Bob Greeley. Al and wife Delores reside in South Paris, Maine.
